Foreword

This directory contains lists of graduates through September 4, 1914. Unusual effort has been made that this edition might be more accurate than previous editions, yet mistakes are still numerous. Wherever you, whether an Alumnus or a friend of Baylor, can correct mistakes, you are earnestly requested to do so.

To the name of each graduate whose address is desired a dagger (†) has been prefixed.

At the meeting of the Alumni Association, June 9th, the retiring President, Mr. Frank E. Burkhalter, 1907, recommended that the Alumni Association have a paid permanent secretary, whose duty it should be to fraternize more closely the former students and organize local Baylor clubs in the cities about the country. He also urged the publication of an alumni organ and strongly recommended that the rich heritage of traditions which Baylor has, being the oldest school in Texas, be collected while those are yet living who knew the University at Independence during the days of Judge Baylor and later during the forty years of Dr. Rufus C. Burleson's presidency.

Pending the selection of this General Secretary, all notifications of changes in address, or corrections of errors, should be mailed to the Registrar's office.

It is requested that the Directory be used only for University and personal purposes, not as a general list for advertising.

BAYLOR UNIVERSITY, chartered under the laws of the Republic of Texas, owes its foundation to a movement begun by the Texas Union Baptist Association which in 1842 resolved to found in Texas a Baptist University. Among the leaders of this movement were Rev. Wm. M. Tryon, Rev. James Huckins, and Hon. R. E. B. Baylor, who, together with others, organized themselves into a body known as the Texas Baptist Education Society.

BAYLOR UNIVERSITY AT INDEPENDENCE.—The charter of the University was obtained from the Republic of Texas February 1, 1845; the preparatory department, with Prof. Henry F. Gillette as principal, was opened the same year at the town of Independence; and in 1847, Rev. Henry L. Graves, D. D., LL. D., was elected President of the then flourishing school.

In 1848 the institution was placed under the control of the Baptist State Convention, which was organized during that year, and Dr. Graves was retained as President. In 1851 Dr. Graves was succeeded in the presidency by Rev. Rufus C. Burleson, D. D., LL. D., and the University entered upon a season of prosperity, adding in that year a Department of Law, a large number of whose graduates became distinguished in legal affairs of state.

It is regretted that this department was abandoned after a few years. Baylor has not now a Law Department.

In 1861, Dr. Burleson having resigned, Rev. Geo. W. Baines, Sr., served as president for one year, and was succeeded by Rev. Wm. Carey Crane, D. D., LL. D. In 1885, Dr. Crane was succeeded by Rev. Reddin Andrews, D. D.

Section 8 of the original charter granted in 1845 provided for a Female Department. This was organized some time prior to June 13, 1850. In June 1851, it was recommended by the Board of Trustees "that Elder Horace Clark and his lady and Miss Harriet Davis be requested to take charge of the Female Department of Baylor University." September 28, 1866, this Department was organized into a separate school, chartered under the name of Baylor Female College, and in 1886 removed to Belton, Texas.

WACO UNIVERSITY.—Meantime in the same year of his resignation as President of Baylor University at Independence, President Burleson, having removed to Waco, established Waco University, under the direction of Trinity River Association. In 1868, this Association having been merged into the Baptist General Association, Waco University passed under the control of this new organization.

BAYLOR UNIVERSITY AT WACO.—In 1886, the situation with regard to Baptist education in Texas was as follows: Waco University, under the direction of the Baptist General Association, was in a flourishing condition; while Baylor University at Independence, under the direction of the Baptist State Convention, was in a state of decline. The result was that Baylor University at Independence and Waco University were united under the name of "Baylor University at Waco," and the two general organizations of the denomination having been consolidated under the name of "The Baptist General Convention of Texas," Baylor University was placed, and has since remained, under the control of this body.
